Sr. Nur'Izzah Khalil, B.A., M.Ed.

Principal

Sr. Nur earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Psychology from the University of Calgary, Canada, holds a Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Bridgewater State University and is a licensed K-6 administrator with the Massachusetts Department of Education. She has worked with the City of Calgary, with the Government of Singapore and was in advertising for eight years. Sr. Nur came from a family of educators. Upon her arrival in MA in 2002, she returned to her first passion, teaching, and immediately became part of the IANE-ANA family as our middle-school Social Studies teacher first, then as our third grade teacher, before assuming her current administrative role. She is ever thankful to Allah s.w.t. for this rare opportunity to make a difference in the community and to help shape the minds of our precious Muslim youth. Sr. Nur can be reached at nkhalil@iane.org.

Sr. Aminah K. Muhammad, A.S.

Assistant Registrar

Sr Aminah serves many roles at both ANA and IANE. She has her Associate's degree from Northeastern University. She has extensive experience having worked in Islamic schools since 1984 in both Massachusetts and Mississippi. Sr Aminah has been with Al-Noor Academy since 2000 and started full-time at IANE in 2006. She can be found at both schools serving as a lifeline between parents, students, and teachers. Her favorite activities include working with children, reading, and sewing when she has the time to sew! Sr Aminah can be reached at amuhammad@iane.org.

Sr. Dalal Aldajani, B.S.

Administrative Manager

Sr. Dalal graduated from University of Jordan with a Bachelor's degree in civil engineering and has taught in an Islamic school in London, UK, for three years. Subsequently she participated in a Saturday Islamic school for two years in Cambridge, MA, and currently holds an administrative position at IANE. Outside of work, Sr Dalal actively leads a Girls Scout troop and is skilled in arts and crafts projects. Sr Dalal can be reached at daldajani@iane.org.

Sr Hoda Elsharkawi, B.A.

Religion Teacher

Sr. Hoda holds a BA in Mass Communication & Journalism (1996) from University of Zagazig, Egypt. She has completed courses in Islamic Creed, Quran Exegesis, Sciences of Quran, Fundamentals of Islamic Jurisprudence and Hadith Sciences at Islamic American Open University, Virginia. Sr. Hoda was the Head of the Islamic Society of Boston (ISB) Outreach Department (1999-2002), and is now leading a support group for new Muslim women. She is married with three children who attend both the Islamic Academy of New England and Al-Noor Academy, and can be reached at helsharkawi@iane.org.

Sr. Asma Shaqrah, B.A., M.A.

Quran Teacher & Tarbiyah Coordinator

Sr. Asma Shaqrah obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Arabic Language and Literature from the University of Jordan, and her Master's Degree from American College. She has been teaching Arabic for 10 years; 3 years in Jordan and 7 at the Islamic Academy of New England (IANE). Sr. Asma has been the lead teacher in the Arabic Department at the IANE. Sr. Asma is the head of the Arabic Department at Muslim American Society Council of Islamic Schools (MASCIS) and has done many projects in the school such as "My School" video clip and the Arabic Calligraphy project. Sr. Asma's goal is to help the students understand Quran through teaching Arabic to build strong Muslims and build a strong Muslim community. Sr Asma can be reached at ashaqrah@iane.org.

Sr. Rachida Benkaci

Arabic Lead Teacher

With over ten years of experience teaching Arabic language at the Islamic Academy of New England, Sr Rachida is certainly not an unfamiliar face amongst the staff. Armed with extensive knowledge in Arabic language and literature, she has been a driving force behind the Arabic department at IANE in the past and has contributed tremendously towards instilling the love of the holy language of the Quran in the hearts and minds of our students for many years. We welcome Sr Rachida back this year with open arms and a prayer that she may continue with her dedicated service to the school with the same zeal that has been her trademark so that our students go on to learn and excel in the Arabic language, insha'Allah. Sr Rachida can be reached at rbenkaci@iane.org.

Sr Aliaa Eltanwansy, B.A.

Arabic Teacher

Sr Aliaa holds a Bachelor's degree in Regional and Urban Planning from the University of Cairo and worked as an architect for three years in Egypt. Sr Aliaa joined the Islamic Academy of New England last year as second-level Arabic teacher after having been involved with various Islamic schools since 2003 as a parent. Sr Aliaa loves art and has experience with painting Ancient Egyptian art on papyrus. Sr Aliaa can be reached at aeltawansy@iane.org.

Sr Iman Mkanssi

Pre-School (Pre-K) Teacher Assistant

Sr Iman joined us since 2013 as our pre-school teacher assistant and she is thrilled to return this year to our pre-school classes, and to teach Arabic to our youngest group of students at IANE! Sr Iman actively volunteer-teach at the Islamic Center at both ICNE-Sharon and ICNE-Quincy and can be reached at imkanssi@iane.org.

Miss. Souheir Al-Mousa, Assoc.Degree

Kindergarten (K3) Teacher

Miss Souheir grew up in Damascus, Syria. She studied French literature at Damascus University, and has Early Childhood Teacher certification with EEC. She lived with her family in Saudi Arabia for four years, in Oman for two years, and in the United Arab Emirates for three years. While in the Emirates, she worked in the library at the American University of Sharjah. Miss Souheir relocated to Massachusetts in 2002 and began working at the Islamic Academy of New England that year as a kindergarten assistant and has been our kindergarten teacher for the past ten years. Miss Souheir celebrates the miracle of being able to watch her students grow and learn during the year they are with her. She enjoys the privilege of being able to see them read and write their first words and can be reached at smousa@iane.org.

Sr. MaryLou Elhusayni, B.S.

Early Childhood Co-Teacher

Sr MaryLou has a Bachelor's degree in Science from Roger Williams University. She has been an assistant in our Kindergarten class for three years and has also supported both our First and Second grade classes. Additionally, Sr MaryLou has also taught Spanish to our students and has been actively involved in fundraising activities for our school. She can be reached at melhusayni@iane.org.

Mrs Oya Bozkurt, B.Ed, M.Ed

First Grade Teacher

Sr Oya is a dynamic and experienced elementary school teacher who is dedicated towards educating young students and inspiring them to love to learn in a safe, engaging and nurturing environment. She obtained her Bachelor's degree in Education from Salem State College and her Master's degree from Jones International University. Sr Oya has taught in both the Lawrence and Methuen public school districts and comes to IANE with over 12 years of teaching experience. She is highly skilled in evaluating individual student needs and developing student-focused teaching strategies. Sr Oya can be reached at obuzkurt@iane.org.

Mrs Cassandra Valley, B.Ed. M.Ed.

Second Grade Teacher

Mrs Cassandra Valley obtained her Bachelor's degree in Education from Framingham State University and her Master's degree in Education from Lesley University. As part of her degree, Mrs Valley completed three exhaustive field studies at the Framingham Public school district and had experience observing and conducting lessons in various elementary grades one through five. She successfully student taught a class of 23 fourth grade students in all core subjects for four full months at the Franklin Public school. She is committed to motivating students while providing a safe and friendly learning environment. Mrs Valley can be reached at cvalley@iane.org.

Ms Stephanie Walsh, B.Sc.

Third Grade Teacher

Ms. Stephanie Walsh recently graduated from Bridgewater State University with a Bachelor of Science in Education. She majored in Special Education and Communication Disorders and also minored in Psychology. Ms. Walsh first found her passion for teaching and helping others in high school where she volunteered her time tutoring students in Spanish and teaching gymnastics classes. She followed this passion during her time at Bridgewater State dedicating several semesters to peer tutoring, volunteering as a clinician to the Child's Physical Development Clinic, and serving as a student clinician at Bridgewater State's Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic. Upon graduation, Ms. Walsh became a Massachusetts state-licensed Speech-Language Pathology Assistant. Since January 2016, she has gained significant teaching experience while supporting IANE's fourth grade classroom. She is very excited to return to our IANE community and continue her teaching journey as our third grade teacher and can be reached at swalsh@iane.org.

Mrs Shamaila Zia, MD

Fourth Grade Teacher

Mrs. Zia received her Bachelor's of Medicine & Surgery degree from Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi in 1992. She then completed her medical internship in Medicine & Surgery from Civil Hospital, Karachi, receiving excellence in both. In her medical school, she actively participated in debates and received the best debater award. She relocated to the U.S. in 2001 and brings her passion for science to the classroom. She has taught science to grades six through 10 and has served as the IANE fourth grade homeroom teacher in 2015-16. Sr. Rabiya was born and raised in Chicago. Eventually moving to New York, she graduated from City University of New York's Queens College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary and Early Childhood Education, as well as Psychology. Sr. Rabiya is also certified through the New York State Department of Education as an elementary education teacher. During the past two years in New York, Sr. Rabiya has worked closely with New York City's public schools (Queens). She has been working as a substitute teacher in various elementary schools this past 2014-15 school year, and successfully student taught in 2013-14. Sr. Rabiya is now moving to this area and is excited to become a part of the IANE team where she hopes to take everything she has extracted from her teaching experiences in New York and incorporate it into her own classroom. In her spare time, Sr. Rabiya enjoys traveling, baking, and spending time with her family. Sr. Rabiya can be reached at ratcha@iane.org.

Br. Zineddine Benkaci
School Maintenance

Br. Zineddine is another familiar face amongst the staff at IANE and ANA. Br. Zine has been in charge of the janitorial services at both schools for many years now. Not only have his services been invaluable in maintaining the buildings at both Mansfield and Sharon, this father of three daily presence at the school has always been a source of comfort and joy for all the staff at the school where everyone has embraced him as part of their family and has depended on his helping hand time and time again. Alhumdulilah, Br. Zine will be continuing his service to the school again this year and we welcome him back with great warmth and joy.

----- We Look Forward To Seeing You at IANE ! -----
