Well Done, Fourth Graders!

This past Tuesday, our Fourth Graders successfully participated in the 2009 National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) a.k.a the "Nation's Report Card". For almost 40 years, NAEP is given by the U.S. Department of Education and has tracked what American students know and can do in key subject areas.

IANE was selected to represent private schools across the nation and our participation was critical as 11 percent of America's students are now enrolled in private schools.

We are very proud of our students for helping to make a difference towards school improvements and for showing what American students can do!

We also extend our heartfelt "Thanks" to all parents, and to Sr Joan Richardson, for encouraging our students to play an active civic role in supporting our nation's efforts.

Jazakum Allahu Khairan,
Sr Nur'Izzah Khalil
Acting Principal
