"To those who do right is a good (reward).

Yes, more (than that): no darkness, no dust, nor shame shall be over their faces!

They are the companions of the Garden; In there they will live (for ever)."

Science Fair at IANE !

Our students will be delving deep into the mysteries of Science in this coming month of March and our proactive PTO has, once again, kindly arranged a special "Reptile Show" for all students to enjoy next Wednesday morning, March 4th.

For their Science Fair projects, students will be encouraged to either conduct a survey, an experiment, or research to validate their "I Wonder Why?" hypothesis.

The Science Fair itself will take place at the end of the month on Wednesday, 3/25. Our upper graders will have the opportunity to present their projects to official judges on this day.

Please look-out for teacher's guidelines on the fair and help support our students at home as they start working on it from next week on.

Jazakum Allahu Khairan,
Sr Nur'Izzah Khalil
Acting Principal

Thank you Everyone !!

From our students who have shown such great excitement at purchasing from our Book Fair this entire week, to our supportive parents for helping out and for attending this evening's "Parents' Night", and to each and everyone of our dedicated teachers and staff who have made this week-long event so successful, we sincerely thank you for your time and generosity. We couldn't have done it without you !!

Charles River School Visits 3rd Grade

Both the Islamic Academy of New England and Charles River School have been engaged in an inter-faith exchange program and, each year, our 3rd graders will play host to the visiting school as they discover and experience student life here at IANE. This year, the event will take place on Wednesday, 3/11 and our 3rd graders have already established contact with their peers at Charles River School. We look forward to the visit and invite all 3rd grade parents to help-out with this event. Please contact Sr Aminah at 781-784-0990 if you would like to participate and volunteer on this special day. JAK.
