Target's Take Charge of Education

As you may know the TARGET store has been raising more than $200 million for schools to date, and our school, the Islamic Academy of New England, is an eligible school for such funds from Target.

All you have to do is quote our School I.D. Number 116400 to the cashier whenever you shop at Target using the REDCard, Target Visa Credit Card or Target Check Card.

Target will issue payouts twice a year in March and September to our school based on 1% of all of your total purchases and these funds can be used for classroom furniture, books and more!

Please visit www.target.com and enter "Take Charge of Education" to learn more about this community program.

We thank you for your kind participation and support in helping to raise funds for your child(ren)'s beloved school as you do your daily shopping at Target.

Jazakum Allahu Khairan.
